

Page 2

County of Los Angeles Department of Parks and Recreation
5th District Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich
Eaton Canyon Nature Center Associates

Let's celebrate Earth Day and Healthy Parks Month at Eaton Canyon Natural Area Park – your healthy park!

Come join us for a fun and informative
"Healthy Earth, Healthy Parks, Healthy You!"

Earth Day Festival

Free Activities!

Saturday, April 12th, 2008

9am-4pm

Eaton Canyon Nature Center (626) 398-5420
1750 N. Altadena Drive, Pasadena, California 91107

Scheduled Nature Walks:

- 9:00 am Bird Walk
- 9:30 am Ecology Walk
- 10:00 am Plant Walk

Explore with Naturalists!

Live Music by Local Talent:

- 1:00 pm Live Nature Music Concert
- Listen to nature inspired musicians
& celebrate the earth through their songs and music about nature!

Live Animal Presentations:

Meet native reptiles & raptors up close!

*Join Seemore Eagle & Ranger
Raccoon for a Day of Fun:*

All-day Activities and Exhibits:

11:00 am – 4:00pm

Make-It-Take-It Recycle Crafts:

Free wooden ducks:

Learn to carve without a knife and get a free wooden duck from Woodcarving Jim Whiteley.

Turn "trash" into fun arts and crafts!

Nature Art Show

Come see the beautiful art work from Eaton
Canyon's naturalists and volunteers.

Tables on Healthy Earth Activities

Ways of Recycling, Alternative Gardening,
Natural Areas Programs & Nature Experts.

Teacher Resource Giveaway

Free Books, Posters, and Much More!

Nature-la-hoop Contest!

Free Native Plants for Your Garden!

Raffles & Games to Win Prizes!

Healthy Treats & Free Bags

Sample the wholesome goodness of healthy snacks from Whole Foods Market and get a free reusable grocery bag while supplies last!

“Creating Green Community Through People, Parks and Programs”

For more information, please contact Helen at the Nature Center (626) 398-5420

Printed on Recycled Paper

